

Myths in the Archaeology of Jerusalem

Symposium

---

Wed, 8 July 2020

Chair: David Gurevich

On Zoom | Jerusalem 8 PM | London 6 PM | New York 1 PM | Los Angeles 10 AM

Chair: David Gurevich | Bar-Ilan University

20:00 Presentations (in Hebrew) EST 1:00 PM

Welcome Notes: David Ilan | Hebrew Union College
Jerusalem, Head of the Nelson Glueck School of Biblical Archaeology

The Search for the Treasures of Jerusalem's Temple: Between Imagination and Academic Research

Eyal Meiron

The High-Level Aqueduct and the Serpent's Pool: Notes on Two Myths in Jerusalem's Studies

David Gurevich | Bar-Ilan University

Discussion

21:15 Presentations (in English) EST 2:15 PM

"The Temple or the Tomb": How James Fergusson Spurred the Exploration of Jerusalem

David M. Jacobson | King's College, London

Breaking a Myth: The Romans in 70 CE did not Collapse the Western Temple Mount Wall — It was the Earthquake of 363 CE

Shimon Gibson | University of North Carolina at Charlotte

Discussion

22:15 Closing Notes EST 3:15 PM

Registration: <https://bit.ly/archmyth> | Voluntary support is appreciated

For inquiries: israelincolor@gmail.com

